Museums at Night 16th – 19th May 2013

The Brunel Museum

To celebrate Museums at Night this year, the 170th Anniversary of the Thames Tunnel, we have put together an exciting programme of underwater music on Thu 16th & Fri 17th May and roof top liquid engineering on Sat 18th May, with more events on the Sunday too:

HANDEL'S UNDERWATER MUSIC: A BRUNELIAN SOIREE with the ROTHERHITHE & BERMONDSEY CHORAL SOCIETY

Thu 16th May, 7.30pm (doors 7pm)

£8 in advance, £10 on door

Thames Tunnel Underground Shaft

Music by Handel, Mendelssohn & William Horsley (pictured) performed underground in the remarkable acoustics of the Grand Entrance Hall. Descend by low entrance and temporary staircase into a secret chamber to hear about the World's First Underwater Concert and listen to the Rotherhithe & Bermondsey Choral Society.

LIQUID MUSIC: ANNIVERSARY of the THAMES TUNNEL FLOOD with AINE O'DWYER

Fri 17th May, 7.30pm (doors 7pm)

£10 in advance, £12 on door

Thames Tunnel Underground Shaft

This Irish harpist and singer marks the anniversary of the great flood of the Thames Tunnel May 1827. A tribute to those who lost their lives, to the injured and to those who survived. And the launch of her new album "Anything bright or startling?".

LIQUID ENGINEERING: MIDNIGHT APOTHECARY FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Sat 18th May, 5-10.30pm

Thames Tunnel Roof Garden

A cocktail party with a difference in the roof garden, with wild food from The Foragers. Today enjoy brandy & lovage, whisky & chocolate mint sprig, vodka & lavender in the light of the bonfire; in 1827, miners in the Tunnel below also got light headed on sulphide, methane & monoxide...

BRUNEL'S UNDERWATER ADVENTURE: GUIDED TOUR

Sun 19th May, 12, 2 & 4pm

£6 cash on the day only

Descend by low entrance and temporary staircase into a secret chamber, for the story of Brunel's escape from drowning and the story of the world's first underwater concert. Indulge in Turkish breakfast & meze, food from The Foragers and garden cocktails.

Advance concert tickets: www.brunel-museum.org.uk & in person at museum

For SE16 residents only (proof required): advance ticket prices also available on door.

We regret no wheelchair access for events underground; dress warmly.
